Year 2 Class Saint Mother Teresa

In 1910 - Mother Teresa was born

Mother Teresa was born in Macedonia. She was named Agnes, and she later changed her name to Teresa.
In 1931 - Sister Teresa becomes a teacher

Teresa was called Sister Teresa when she first began working at St. Mary's High School in Calcutta, India.

In 1928 - Agnes becomes a nun

At the age of 18, Agnes decided to dedicate herself to God's work. She became a nun and changed her name to Teresa.

In 1948 - Mother Teresa moves on

After seeing the poor people on the streets outside of St. Mary's, Mother Teresa asked the church leaders if she could help them. She left the school so she could minister to the poor of Calcutta.

In 1969 - Mother Teresa establishes Missionaries of Charities

Mother Teresa worked for years with the poor. When she noticed they had no hospitals or clinics, she began working to give them medical treatment, which led to the establishment of Missionaries of Charities.

In 1957 - Mother Teresa opens an orphanage

Mother Teresa had a heart for the destitute, and especially for children. This led her to open her first orphanage in India.

In 1969 - Mother Teresa establishes Missionaries of Charities

Mother Teresa worked for years with the poor. When she noticed they had no hospitals or clinics, she began working to give them medical treatment, which led to the establishment of Missionaries of Charities.

In 1980 - Mother Teresa the home builder

Mother Teresa established homes for people who had no place to live. She used the donations of people from around the world to pay for the homes.

In 1997 - Mother Teresa's health declines

Mother Teresa continued her work even as she grew older and frail. By this time she had over 4000 workers in over 120 countries. She returned to Calcutta in India where she died.