Homework - I am Warrior

Half term homework:

Enjoy completing at least two of the activities from the selection below. Bring in any work that you complete so we can add it to our topic display. Have lots of fun learning more about the rotten Romans – we can't wait to see the work that you produce!

Weekly homework:

- Complete the workout in the white CGP Times Table book.
- Look on Seesaw for the weekly spelling list and show me how you learn these
- Read your reading book and log your activity on GoRead.

I like being creative:

Make a model of a Roman villa using junk materials such as cereal boxes, coloured paper, tin foil and cardboard tubes. Use online images and pictures in non-fiction books to inspire the layout of your villa.

Draw a picture of a Roman God or Goddess. Colour in your picture and write a few sentences about them.

Create a word search or crossword puzzle containing some of the key Roman vocabulary you have learnt.

I like being a mathematician:

Write some number calculations using Roman numerals, for your friends to solve.

Watch the closing credits of your favourite British TV programme. Can you find the Roman numerals at the end? In what year was the programme made?

Find out the dates of birth of your family and friends and record them in Roman numerals.

I like learning outside:

Find out if there are any Roman forts or settlements near where you live. Try to visit one with your family. Take lots of photographs of what you see.

Make your own clock with Roman Numerals using natural materials that you find outside. Take a photo of your clock.

Go on a walk in your local area. Can you see any examples of Roman influences? Such as the use of Roman numerals, aqueducts or Roman roads?

I like reading and writing

Look at holiday brochures and online information to find out about modern day Rome as a tourist destination. Which tourist attractions would you like to visit? What is the weather like? Where else would you like to go in Italy?

Read a book or watch a film on a Roman theme. Write a review to let your classmates know what you thought about it.

Use an online translation tool to write well-known phrases in Latin, the language of the Romans.
